A CUP OF COLD WATER (ACCW) Our Mission

Often times, we must look into our past and take a reflective journey back into time to help us remember our sacred duties and remind us what is radically important to our God. A Cup of Cold Water is a simple but sacred backyard mission. We are reminded that extreme gratitude, invigorated by the grace of God, refuels our souls and helps send us again and again into the hard reality of going where the need is.

One of the sacred duties of the Deacon in the Ancient Christian Church was to distribute food and to care for the poor. In 258 A.D, Laurence was one Deacon who took his assignment seriously. As a trusted Deacon of Bishop Sixtus II of Rome, Laurence was entrusted with the entire treasury of the Roman Church when Bishop Sixtus II was jailed by the Roman Emperor Valerian.

Laurence then gave the entire treasury to the poor and sick. When Emperor Valerian learned that Laurence had been given the treasury of the church, he hauled the Deacon into court and demanded he turn over the treasury," the funds of an illegal organization".

Laurence responded by assembling a mob of infirmed and impoverished persons and presented them to the ruler, saying, "These are the treasures of the church"! Needless to say Emperor Valerian was greatly angered and Deacon Laurence was publicly martyred.

With the help of many, we continue to take the radical love of Jesus Christ out onto the street to those who live in despair and poverty. We remain an ecumenical Christian outreach mission to the poor and destitute who live in Maui's community. We seek to remind ourselves, our Churches and our fellow man who the true treasures of the Church are. We seek to remind ourselves what our priorities are as followers of Christ. We seek to remind ourselves that church is not only about us. We remain a spiritual mission, taking small measures to deliver the basic needs of water, nutrition, clothing and comfort directly to the true treasures of our Church. Amen.
